

Some sort of snappy, animated into of some kind

It's easy to see the other as crazy

In this time of highly polarized politics

All news is documented by humans

Inherantly giving it a biased perspective

Inherantly giving it a biased perspective

Which makes it difficult to make informed opinions

What do we need?

Unbiased News and Information

100% free of political bias and ulterior motive

An honest opinion from both sides

What they believe and why they believe it

Right

Climate Change

A Grave Danger

There is sufficient science to prove that climate change is real, and is an imminent threat that needs to be taken seriously.

Not Concerning

The earth's climate has always fluxuated since the dawn of time, and the scientists forecasting death are wrong.

Immigration

Human Decency

It's human decency to open our borders to those wanting to immigrate, they're in danger otherwise and diversity has benefits

Not Our Problem

Our borders should be tighter, for our own security. We need to prioritize our own citizens over others

Gun Control

Tighter Restrictions

So much tragety has been caused by loose gun control laws, and the only way to curb gun violence is to impose restrictions

It's Our right

Our founding fathers explicitly sstated that we have the right to bear arms. Guns don't kill people, people do.
